MORTGAGE SALE.

Default having been made in the conditions of a certain mortgage made by Oliver S. Clark, and Alice Clark, his wife, of Cheboygan, Michigan, to Jacob Post and Tonia T. Van Arsdale, of the same place, dated January 25th, A. D. 1881, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds, for the County of Cheboygan, and State of Michigan, on the 1st day of July A. D. 1881, in Liber "B" of Mortgages, on page 278, on which mortgage there is claimed to be due at the date of this notice the sum of Eight Hundred and sixty-seven dollars and sixty-five cents ($867.65), and an attorney's fee of Fifty dollars ($50), provided for in said mortgage, and no suit or proceedings at law having been instituted to recover the money secured by said mortgage, or any part thereof.

Now, Therefore, by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage, and the statute in such case made and provided, notice is hereby given that on Tuesday the fifteenth day of July A. D. 1884, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, we shall sell at Public Auction, to the highest bidder, at the front door of the Court House in the Village of Cheboygan, in the County of Cheboygan, Michigan, (that being the place where the Circuit Court for Cheboygan County is held), the premises described in said mortgage, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount due on said mortgage, with interest, cost, interest and all legal costs, together with an attorney's fee of Fifty dollars ($50) contained in said mortgage as all that certain piece or parcel of land situate in the Village of Cheboygan, in the County of Cheboygan and State of Michigan, and described as follows, to-wit: Commencing at the North-westerly corner of a piece of land conveyed by S. LeGault and wife Mary to Charles Wilson by deed, dated the 27th day of May, 1869, and recorded in the Register of Deeds office for said County of Cheboygan, thence running Easterly on the Northernly line of said Wilson's land two hundred (200) feet more or less to "B" street in West Duncan, so called, thence Northernly along the Westernly line of said "B" street eighty-three (83) feet, thence Westernly on a line parallel to said Northernly line of Wilson's land, one hundred (100) feet to the corner of the place of beginning. Intending hereby to convey all the land included in two certain deeds, one from S. LeGault and wife Mary to Oliver S. Clark (mortgage herein) dated July 5th 1869, and recorded in Cheboygan County Registers office in Liber "B" of Deeds on page 405. The above described premises will be sold, however subject to a certain mortgage executed by the said Oliver S. Clark and wife to Mary Boock, October 29th, 1875, and recorded in Liber "B" of Mortgages, page 240 and 241.

SONGS NEVER SUNG.

"How does that verse run? Something like this, isn't it?"

"There are who touch the magic string; And noly fame is ploy to win them; Alas! for those who never sing, But die with all their music in them."

"Yes, that's beautiful, pathetic and true," said your representative. "The poet alludes to people who are somehow suppressed, and never get their full allowance of joy and air. Which reminds me of a letter shown me the other day by HISCOX & Co., of New York, signed by Mr. E. C. Williams, of Chapman, Snyder & Co., Pa., a prominent business man of that place. He writes:

"I have suffered with asthma for over forty years, and had a terrible attack in December and January, 1882. I hardly know what prompted me to take PARKER'S TONIC. I did so, and the first day I took four doses. The effect astonished me. That night I slept as if nothing was the matter with me, and have ever since. I have had colds since, but no asthma. My breathing is now as perfect as if I had never known that disease. If you know of any one who has the asthma tell him in my name that PARKER'S TONIC will cure it—even after forty years." There was a man who escaped the fate of those whom the poet laments. This preparation, which has heretofore been known as PARKER'S GINGER TONIC, will hereafter be advertised and sold under the name of PARKER'S TONIC. Inasmuch as ginger is really an unimportant ingredient, and unprincipled dealers are constantly deceiving their customers by substituting inferior preparations under the name of ginger, we drop the misleading word.

There is no change, however, in the preparation itself, and all bottles remaining in the hands of dealers, wrapped under the name of PARKER'S GINGER TONIC contain the genuine medicine if the facsimile signature of HISCOX Co. is at the bottom of the outside wrapper.
